NEW LOGO

For those who haven't seen it yet, October will see the launch of a new WTA logo. The decision was taken to update the current design, which will be timed to coincide with a number of new initiatives in Welsh triathlon. The logo was designed to represent Wales' national identity whilst also being a part of British triathlon.

Inter regional Championships

September saw Wales send a team of Tristars and Youths to the National inter regional championships 2005, which was again held in Liverpool.

All of the athletes acquitted themselves extremely well in what is probably the toughest field they are ever likely be in.

The Welsh Team proved particularly strong in the Tristar-2 category with special mention going to Hywelis Thomas-Howells who finished on the girls podium in Third and Alex Matchett who finished a strong fourth in the tristar 2 boys. Yet again the youngsters have proved that Junior triathlon in Wales is coming on strongly.

Overall Wales finished 6th, Well done to all of the athletes who took part.

Start/Potential Selection Day

Wales has already proved that it is able to produce athletes that rank among the best in the world, such as Sian Brice, Leanda Cave, Anneliese Heard and Olympian Marc Jenkins.

In order to maintain this standard of excellence, the WTA is committed to developing and supporting the next generation of outstanding triathletes, and has organised a National talent identification day at Wales National Pool, Swansea (WNPS) on Saturday October 8th 2005.

The day is open to anyone who will be between 15 and 23 years old next year and athletes are particularly welcome from other sports.

Further details are attached to this newsletter.
